CONGRATULATIONS

On behalf of everyone in Nynehead, many congratulations to Ed Ling on winning a bronze medal in the Men's Trap shooting event at the Olympic Games in Rio.

FLOWER FESTIVAL

Nynehead Court and Nynehead Church are holding a Flower Festival with local community groups providing floral displays on the subject of 'Village Life'.

The event takes place on Friday 9th and Saturday 10th September (10.00 am to 5.00 pm) and Sunday 11th September (2.00 to 5.00 pm) and has been organised by Nynehead Court. The displays are by groups including Nynehead Pre-School, Nynehead and District Local History Society, the Gardening Club, Nynehead Memorial Hall, Amateur Dramatic Society and Nynehead Court residents, and will be on show in the Church. The Church bells will be rung on Saturday 10th September. The Festival provides societies and groups within Nynehead an opportunity to come together to give an insight into their contribution to village life, with all profits going to Nynehead Church.

The Harvest Festival service will also take place on Sunday 11th September at 10.45 am to be followed by a 'Bring and Share' lunch.

THE QUEEN'S 90th BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS

The small group of people who organised the event would like to thank all those people who attended, making the day so successful and providing enormous amounts of party food and raffle prizes.

We were over whelmed and delighted with the help we received prior to, and on, the day.

It has been decided to donate the profit of £65 from the event to Keiran Harcombe who is 16 years old and spoke at a recent Parish Council meeting about raising funds to purchase a defibrillator for the village [please see the next item].

Special thanks also to Martin Darbyshire for a wonderful village photograph.

VILLAGE DEFIBRILLATOR

When the locals of Nynehead celebrated the Queen's Birthday a raffle was held at the Court, and the Club Committee is pleased to announce that it has decided to donate the profit from the raffle to the project a local young man named Keiran Harcombe is actively coordinating. It is Keiran's intention to raise enough monies through events to purchase a defibrillator for use within the village. If anyone would like to support and donate to the cause, please contact a member of the Nynehead Club Committee. Better still pop into the Club and talk to one of us.

We are sure you will agree that this cause is invaluable and the fact that it is being coordinated by a 16-year-old is a credit to him. Well done, Keiran.

DOG WALKING CODE

A copy of the Code is included with this edition of the Newsletter. Please read and follow it if you are a dog walker.

NYNEHEAD BOOK EXCHANGE

The old BT telephone kiosk at the junction of the Luckham Road in Upper Nynehead has been refurbished and is now ready to use as a book exchange. The kiosk is maintained by the residents and Parish Council of Nynehead. Please feel free to borrow a book or donate (only three books per donation), all we ask is that the kiosk is kept tidy and is respected. There is also a notice board for residents to use. Please keep notices no bigger than post card size.

For help with books or notices please contact Rosemary Lea (01823 666166). The Kiosk is owned by Nynehead Parish Council and you can contact the Clerk, Ros Shepherd (01823 660940) for any further information.

Many thanks to Colin Shepherd for refurbishing the kiosk and building the bookshelves.

CONCERTS

Nynehead Court is organising a concert by Wellington School on Saturday 17th September in the Church in the early evening.

A fortnight later, the Church is arranging one by Avon and Somerset Police Male Voice Choir on Saturday 1st October in the Church, again in the evening.

Dear Village

Last week my Uncle died of a brain tumour aged just 53. After some research I have found that only 1 per cent of money donated for cancer research goes to brain tumours. I have set myself a target of raising £2,000 in the next year. I will be holding some events in the village plus I am running a 'Donate your Coppers' campaign. If you would like a pot to fill with your unwanted coppers for this worthy cause, please call me on 01823 667148 or email me on lizzy-boyd@hotmail.co.uk and I will happily deliver one to you and collect it when full.

Many thanks
